The A-CDCN

The National Choreographic Development Centers Association (A-CDCN) brings all 13 CDCNs together. Its objective is to organize exchanges and discussions among the CDCN teams, regarding the missions they were given by the French State, to facilitate collective brainstorming, implement actions and produce works in order to promote and stimulate their network.

NATIONAL CHOREOGRAPHIC DEVELOPMENT CENTERS, A NATIONAL LABEL

There are 13 CDCNs in France, all supported by the French State (Ministry of Culture) and by local authorities. CDCNs are territorial stakeholders and national reference centers for dance. They provide useful support to independent artistic teams and act as tools of promotion and action towards the public.

THEY UNDERTAKE THE FOLLOWING MISSIONS

- Support of choreographic creation and research, paying particular attention to emerging artists
- Dissemination of dance shows in cooperation with local scenes and theaters
- Cultural and educational action, relations with the public and the populations
- Development of local partnerships and implementation of a network policy
- Training and integration of dance professionals

DISSEMINATION OF DANCE SHOWS

- ▶ 426 programmed shows for 911 representations
- ▶ 18 festivals or events, including 4 for young audiences
- ▶ 128,276 spectators, including 28,605 young spectators

CULTURAL AND EDUCATIONAL ACTION RELATIONS WITH THE PUBLIC AND THE POPULATIONS

- ▶ 8,413 hours of awareness-raising action for 41,225 beneficiaries
- ▶ 6 tools for artistic and cultural education created hand-in-hand
 - Interactive workshops, based on excerpts of movies and plays taken from the repertoire La danse en 10 dates (1896-1992), Une histoire de la danse contemporaine en 10 titres (1978-2006)
 - A danced lecture Tour du monde des danses urbaines en 10 villes
 - Digital tools Danses sans visa, Data-Danse and Application à Danser

SUPPORT OF CHOREOGRAPHIC CREATION

▶ 197 produced or co-produced projects

▶ 18 co-productions
